

"Very well done and informative!"

- The American Organist Publication 1994

The Massey Organ, located on the grounds of historic Chautauqua Institution, is the largest outdoor pipe organ in the United States with 5640 pipes, 4 manuals and 93 ranks. This documentary highlights the instrument's almost year long reconstruction and the Father and Son team who completed the task, preserving it for future generations.

Special Feature: 2003's 32' Bombarde Installation Vignette

© 2013 All Rights Reserved
An Ear Ahead Production

DVD
Video

4:3
Full Screen

NTSC

Color

Dolby Digital
Audio

English

69 minutes

Between the Motion and the Music

DVD
Video

Between the Motion and the Music

a film by
Frederick A. Rueckert

